Invitation

Dear Delegates, It gives us an immense pleasure to invite you for Two Day National conference on 'Punyashlok Ahilyadevi Holkar Leadership, Social Reform and Cultural Renaissance' organized by Bhartiya Shikshan Prasarak Sanstha Ambajogai's, Shri Siddheshwar Mahavidyalaya, Majalgaon's Dept. of History, & Itihas Sankalan Sanstha, Maharashtra (Devgiri Prant) on Date 12 & 13 August 2025.

About the Institution & College:

Our Bhartiya Shikshan Prasarak Sanstha (BSPS) Ambajogai is established in June 1951. One step ahead in quality and social commitment. The name of the Institution points out that emphasis is on "Bhartiyatwa". Its philosophy is based on the concept of what is essentially Indian in all walks of life. The Sanstha's work was started with the motto "Kelyane Hot Aahere, Aadhi Kelechi Pahije". The message given by a Maharashtrian Saint Samrath Ramdas in his "Dasbodh" Granth. Main objectives of this Sanstha is to provide the Higher education facilities to the students from rural area and to build up good character.

Shri Siddheshwar Mahavidyalaya, Majalgaon Dist. Beed is one of the BSPS college which established in 1996. College is multi faculty with 20 UG. Departments, with an enrollment of more than 2000 students. It is affiliated to Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University, Chhatrapati Sambhajnagar. It is a dynamic educational institution committed to providing a transformative educational experience for its students with its wide range of academic offerings, comprehensive student support services and commitment to excellence. It is also a leading educational institution dedicated to providing high-quality undergraduate and postgraduate programs to a diverse student body.

Theme of the Conference : Punyashlok Ahilyadevi Holkar (31 May 1725 – 13 August 1795) the queen of the Malwa kingdom, India. Rajmata Ahilyadevi was born in the village of Chondi in Jamkhed, Ahiyanagar, Maharashtra. She moved the capital to Maheshwar south of Indore on the Narmada River. Ahilyabai's husband Khanderao Holkar was killed in the battle of Kumbher in 1754. Twelve years later, her father-in-law, Malhar Rao Holkar, died. A year after that she was crowned as the queen of the Malwa kingdom about 28 years. She tried to protect her kingdom from plundering invaders. She personally led armies into battle. She appointed Tukojirao Holkar as the Chief of Army. Rani Ahilyadevi was a great pioneer and builder of Hindu temples. She built hundreds of temples and Dharmshalas throughout India. Celebrated for her exemplary leadership, progressive governance, and deep commitment to cultural and social development. She redefined the role of women in leadership and left an indelible mark on Indian history. The Ahilyadevi Holkar National Conference seeks to honor her unparalleled contributions by creating a platform for discussions, knowledge sharing and research on her legacy of leadership and governance, social reform and women's empowerment preserving and promoting Indian culture and heritage. This conference outcome may be Inspire future generations, researchers and policy makers through her principles of justice, inclusivity, and sustainability.
